

PROGRAMME

The State University of Zanzibar
(SUZA)
Vuga building, Stone Town
November 8-9, 2022

DAY 1, Nov 8

Chair: Manuela Palmeirim, Camões / SUZA, (Portugal / Tanzania)

8:30 – Arrival of participants

8:45 – Opening session

9:00 – Keynote. Abdul Sheriff, founder and former Director of the Zanzibar Indian Ocean Research Institute (Tanzania)

9:30 – Maria João Castro, NOVA University, Lisbon (Portugal)

Crossed Gazes in the Indian Ocean. Tourism and Portuguese Heritage in Zanzibar

9:50 – Amélie Lemanceau, Université Paris1 Panthéon-Sorbonne (France)

Diogo Simões Madeira, an example of Portuguese landowner in South-East Africa at the end of the 16th century

10:10 – Debate

10:30 – Eugénia Rodrigues, University of Lisbon (Portugal)

Tracing the imperial roots of manioc in Mozambique: production, trade, and consumption of a food commodity

10:50 – Nancy Rushohora, University of Dar es Salam (Tanzania) / Peter Campbell, British School at Rome (Italy) / Valence Silayo, Tumaini University, Dar es Salam (Tanzania)

Futures through Underwater Past: a search for Mongalo

11:10 – Roya Arab, City University, London (UK)

By whom, why and how will Zanzibar's history be told?

11:30 – Debate

12:00 – Lunch Break

Chair: Maria João Castro, NOVA University (Portugal)

14:00 – Keynote. João P. Oliveira e Costa, NOVA University, Lisbon (Portugal)

The Indian Ocean, the Cape Route and the Silk Roads

14:30 – Selma Carvalho, writer (UK)

Shorelines: The contribution of Goans to the 19th century port of Zanzibar

14:50 – Rozely Oliveira, Universidade Estadual de Campinas (Brazil)

Women religious in the Indian Ocean: the birthplace of the Convent of St. Monica of Goa nuns (1606-1738)

15:10 – Debate

15:30 – Nuno Grancho, University of Copenhagen (Denmark)

Zanzibar, Diu and Tranquebar. Hybridity in architectural and urban colonial cultures from the Indian Ocean realm

15:50 – Ana M. Leite, University of Lisbon / Joana Passos, University of Minho (Portugal)

Cultural Crossings between Goa and Mozambique

16:10 – Debate

16:30 – Guided tour in Stone Town with Abdul Sheriff

DAY 2, Nov 9

Chair: Roya Arab, City University (UK)

9:00 – Keynote. Farouk Topan, Aga Khan University (UK)
Facets of Heritage

9:30 – Valence Silayo, Tumaini University, Dar es Salam (Tanzania)
The Indian Ocean and the intensification of socio-political complexity among small-scale societies in north-eastern Tanzania: a historical archaeological approach

9:50 – Anusha D'Souza, University of Mumbai (India)
Indentured Nostalgia: Revisiting Homeland, Rewriting Coolie Identity

10:10 – Edward Alpers, University of California, Los Angeles (USA)
Cloves and Vanilla in the Nineteenth-Century Indian Ocean World

10:30 – Debate

10:50 – Gabriela Zanfelicce, University of Campinas (Brazil)
From Macaripe to Mecca: Transnational literary routes of the Indian Ocean in 'The enchanted cloth'

11:10 – Mahmood Kooria, Leiden University / Ashoka University (Netherlands / India)
African Scholars in Asia: Islamic Intellectual Circulations across the Indian Ocean, 1200-1500 CE

11:30 – Timothy D. Walker, University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth (USA) / Sujata Murty, University at Albany, New York (USA)
Crossing Disciplinary Boundaries in the Indian Ocean: New Collaborative Research to Assess Historic Changes to Climate in the Southwest Indian Ocean, using Colonial, Maritime, and Environmental Archive Sources (c. 1550-1950)

11:50 – Debate / Closing Session